BaseFirma Contributes to Key Compliance Discussions in Peru

Strengthening a culture of compliance requires collaboration, open dialogue, and the active participation of key industry stakeholders. In this context, Bruno Rojas Aliaga, Partner and Country Leader of Peru at BaseFirma, participated in the first 2026 meeting of the Compliance Committee of the CCSP SwissCham Peru

The session brought together professionals and industry leaders to exchange perspectives, discuss current priorities, and explore initiatives aimed at enhancing compliance standards and promoting best practices within the business community.

BaseFirma Leadership Strengthens International Connections During European Roadshow

Throughout a series of strategic meetings across Europe, BaseFirma continued engaging with key international clients and tax leaders to exchange perspectives on the evolving transfer pricing landscape. The roadshow included discussions in Paris with representatives from Idemia, Saint Gobain and Pernod Ricard, as well as a visit to the headquarters of SGS in Zug, Switzerland.

These interactions reinforced long term collaborations and reflected the importance of staying closely connected to clients, understanding their priorities and supporting cross border business challenges through a global perspective.

Listen to our Podcast

In this episode, we focused on one of the most relevant transfer pricing topics in the region: intragroup financing audits in Peru. In this conversation, Bruno Rojas Aliaga and Yanina Palavecino discuss current audit criteria, common challenges, and key considerations companies should keep in mind when supporting intragroup financing transactions.

The episode provides practical insights for professionals involved in international taxation and regional financing structures.
