BaseFirma Strengthens Brazilian Practice with New Leadership

BaseFirma is pleased to announce the appointment of Isaac Reis as Partner and Country Leader of its Brazilian practice. With extensive experience in transfer pricing, business valuation, and international taxation, Isaac joins the firm to lead the continued growth and development of BaseFirma's presence in one of Latin America's most strategic markets.

His incorporation reinforces BaseFirma's commitment to delivering high quality advisory services across the region while strengthening its capabilities in Brazil. Isaac's leadership and technical expertise will support clients navigating increasingly complex international tax and transfer pricing environments, further enhancing the firm's regional and global reach.

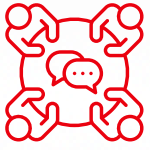

Transfer Pricing Trends and Compliance Challenges Take Center Stage in Peru

Technical dialogue remains essential in addressing the challenges of an evolving tax landscape. Professionals gathered at the event “Transfer Pricing Controversies: Key Trends and Lessons for the 2025 Local File Report,” organized by the Compliance Committee and the Swiss Chamber of Commerce in Peru

During the session, Bruno Rojas Aliaga, Partner and Country Leader of BaseFirma Peru, shared insights on compliance requirements, tax audit defense strategies, and key considerations for preparing the 2025 Local File Report. The discussion reinforced the importance of collaboration and knowledge sharing in strengthening corporate compliance practices.
